

After hearing that the FCC is considering a proposal on Telephone Privacy Laws, I would like to ask that any new law does not cause Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law to be weakened. We used to receive an average of three to five unsolicited calls a day from telemarketers. I can't remember the last one I had. Please don't do anything to change what we have now.

Thank you

Lloyd Parker